Freethought History

On Monday, July 19, at 7:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike, we will be treated to the fruits of Virginia Clark's research in Freethought history. Every year Virginia Clark spends several months in England, and she has spent considerable time and effort researching the history of Freethought and Freethinkers. Join us for enlightenment on Monday, July 19, at 7:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike, when David Schafer will also give us an update on HUUmanism at the recent 2004 UUA General Assembly. Conversation and refreshments begin at 7:30 p.m.

On August 22, at 10:00 a.m., Rev. Douglas Peary will present "Richard Feynman, Humanist Hero."
