Political Action for Secular Connecticut

Help us welcome Pat McCann on Monday, August 15 at 7:00 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden!

Pat will introduce the Secular Coalition for Connecticut, a local affiliate of the Secular Coalition for America, and relay the types of political actions being engaged in on behalf of the secular community in Connecticut. Additionally, he will compare and contrast the Secular Coalition for Connecticut and the Connecticut Coalition of Reason. Finally, he will provide some details of activities planned in 2016/17 with a focus on legislative imperatives planned for 2017 and an emphasis on how people can help and/or participate.

Pat McCann has been an atheist and practicing humanist for 40 years but officially discovered humanism only 10 years ago. He began his activism for the secular community of Connecticut in 2012 after attending the first Reason Rally. Currently Pat is President of the Hartford Area Humanists, chair of the Secular Coalition for Connecticut, and, along with Richard Siddall, co-chair of the Connecticut Coalition of Reason.

Book Discussion: "Good Omens"

On August 20 at 2:00 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden we will be discussing the 1990 comic novel Good Omens: The Nice & Accurate Prophecies of Agnes Nutter, Witch by Neil Gaiman and Terry Pratchett.

From GoodReads: "According to The Nice and Accurate Prophecies of Agnes Nutter, Witch (the world's only completely accurate book of prophecies, written in 1655, before she exploded), the world will end on a Saturday. Next Saturday, in fact. Just before dinner.

So the armies of Good and Evil are amassing, Atlantis is rising, frogs are falling, tempers are flaring. Everything appears to be going according to Divine Plan. Except a somewhat fussy angel and a fast-living demon—both of whom have lived amongst Earth's mortals since The Beginning and have grown rather fond of the life-style—are not actually looking forward to the coming Rapture.

And someone seems to have misplaced the Antichrist ..."

The book is readily available in numerous libraries around the state.

For our book discussion on September 17 we will be reading Matthew Crawford's The World Beyond Your Head: Becoming an Individual in an Age of Distraction.

Refreshments will be served at all of the book discussions.

Humanist Explorations: The Mystery of the Master Builders

Eight hundred years ago, architects began to construct massive cathedrals that broke all the rules of building technology of the time. Instead of thick-walled, dark, and confining structures, they started to build much higher and lighter structures capable of allowing light to flow into the interior. How this was achieved without the benefit of modern materials like steel is the subject of this documentary by Robert Mark, professor emeritus of civil engineering and architecture at Princeton. Join us at 2:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden on Saturday, August 6 for this fascinating perspective on the medieval ancestors of modern glass and steel skyscrapers.
