UU Humanists Local Group

Annual Meeting and Solstice Party

Join us on Monday, December 18, as we celebrate the winter solstice in the Social Hall of the Unitarian Society of New Haven at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden. First we'll enjoy a delicious pot luck dinner at 7:00 p.m., with folk music accompaniment by Mickey Koth's musicians. Next we'll have a short business meeting and elect officers for 2018. Merry-making will resume with our traditional reading of Lois Woodrow's solstice poem, "To The Tilt."

Violinist Linda Beers will treat us to a performance of the soundtrack to her animated Song of Spring (tinyurl.com/yaj3rmxm), an environmentally-inspired metaphorical short film about saving species from extinction. We'll enjoy more music and a raffle for all — half of which one of us will win, and the other half of which will go to the group's treasury. (Tickets are $1 each, $5 for seven or $10 for fifteen.) So let's all come and celebrate the solstice together with our Humanist friends!

Book Discussion: "Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind" by Yuval Noah Harari

We will discuss "Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind" by Yuval Noah Harari on Saturday, December 16, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. in the library of the Unitarian Society of New Haven, 700 Hartford Turnpike, Hamden.

From Amazon: "From a renowned historian comes a groundbreaking narrative of humanity's creation and evolution...that explores the ways in which biology and history have defined us and enhanced our understanding of what it means to be 'human.'"

"One hundred thousand years ago, at least six different species of humans inhabited Earth. Yet today there is only one – homo sapiens. What happened to the others? And what may happen to us?"

"Sapiens tackles the biggest questions of history and of the modern world, and it is written in unforgettably vivid language." – Jared Diamond

Socks!

Gayle Walter is again collecting new socks to donate to local homeless shelters as part of the New Haven Free Public Library's annual drive. Please bring your donation to any HAC meeting.

Explorations: Sacred Cod

We will show the 2016 documentary film, "Sacred Cod: The Fight for a New England Tradition," on January 6 at 2:30 p.m.

As employment in coal mining disappears in West Virginia, an analogous situation exists in the New England cod fishery. This in-depth documentary examines a multi-pronged problem with few easy answers and predicts what the future may hold in store.

Some snacks will be provided; a bite to share is welcome.

Although this event is free and open to the public, we will be providing an opportunity to donate to offset the cost of licensing of this current film.

Join us for this enlightening documentary at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, January 6, at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden.

USNH Social Cinema

The next USNH Social Cinema will take place on Saturday, January 20, at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden. The optional potluck dinner starting at 6:15 p.m. will be followed at 7:15 p.m. by the documentary "I Am Shakespeare: The Henry Green Story," which tells the story of 19-year old Henry Green – living a dual life as a brilliant young actor and inner-city gang member in New Haven – who was shot and left for dead shortly after his inspiring performance in Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet". There will be a Q&A with Filmmaker Stephen Dest after the screening.

Six Hundred Thanksgiving Dinners!

Thank you to all who donated! IVCG is always in need of donations, so if you didn't get a chance before thanksgiving, it's not too late to give a check to a board member.

Humanist Dinner, December 25

Tom and Deidre Kennedy have kindly offered to host an early evening dinner at their home in Shelton at 4:00 p.m. Here's a chance to get out of the house on a day when most of the country is closed and spend some time with like-minded friends! Tom and Deidre will provide an Italian menu with items suitable for vegetarians and non-vegetarians alike. Please bring a desert and a canned good for a local food pantry. Dress is casual. Please RSVP for an address by phone at 203-922-1548 or email at deidre.kennedy@gmail.com

Green Light Project

Please join the Yale Humanist Community on Sunday, December 17, 2017 at 12:30 p.m. on the New Haven Green near the corner of Church and Elm for this year's dedication of their sculpture known as the Green Light Project! The installation will be followed by reflections and a reception at The Grove, 760 Chapel Street.
