Picnic Directions

Our main activity for July will be the annual picnic, to be held again at the lovely home of Dr. Bob and Ms. Joan Rafford, 57 Clearview Knoll Rd., Middlebury, CT.

Telephone: (203) 758-9798

Bring something to eat and drink for yourself, a little food to share (hot or cold, salad, dessert, fruit, vegetables, or what have you), and your relaxed and festive Humanist mood. There will be coals for grilling.

From the New Haven area:

Take Rte. 8 north to I-84 and go west to Exit 17. From the exit go straight ahead (west) on Rte. 64 to the stoplight...

From the Stamford area:

Take Rte. 7 north to I-84 and go east to Exit 17. At the exit turn left onto Rte. 63, go straight to the stoplight (Rte. 64), and turn left again onto Rte. 64...

From the junction of Rte. 64 with Rte. 63:

Head west on Rte. 64 less than one mile, passing through one more stoplight. If you pass a gas station you have gone too far. On the right, look for Tzepos Law Firm sign. At that sign, turn right onto Clearview Knoll Road and drive to the top of the hill. #57 is on the left. Park in the driveway (2 cars wide) or on the street.

FUUS Vote Moot

In the previous newsletter we warned members of an important vote at the June meeting to accept or reject an offer by the First Unitarian Universalist Society of New Haven to move our operations to their facilities on Whitney Avenue. The offer was presented to members at last year's picnic by the FUUS President, ?????, and minister, John Lanz. Due to shrinking membership, FUUS needed additional income to finance their continued use of the building, and HACC publicity committee chair Nash Boutros argued in favor of supporting a liberal organization working within the New Haven city limits.

Shortly before the June meeting, it became known that FUUS has decided to sell the Whitney Avenue building and move to another site in the area. This made our acceptance of their offer moot, and after discussion, the vote was therefore dropped without objection from any member present at the meeting.

April Showers

*In lesser rain we walk among the ruins
 Of many lives undone by mystical
 Encounters with a voice demanding strikes
 Against both reason and machinery
 Of mind like credence to the sensible
 Provenience of knowledge, when at birth
 An infant's world is light, unspecified,
 Enlarged thereafter to include such gleams
 As beastly bones on floors of ancient seas
 As judgments bottomed on experience
 Unsullied by authority or faith.*

*Through rain that blinks like chromium we scan
 A springhouse in collapse with ashlars sunk
 In mire of the splash where once the frogs,
 Now blood-shy on dissecting tables, puffed
 A baritone that stirred the sumacs' drupes:
 A patent probate of inviolateness!*

*Within a hillside boscaje raindrops roll
 Like bearings through the coils of early leaves.*

*High on the watershed the runoff gains
 From snow-melt and the rain a volume viewed
 As currents counter to theophany.*

*The rain-walk closes with a clearing wind;
 A gusting whips a squirrel's furbelows;
 The sky's chiaroscuro, pewter drab,
 Recedes before priorities of blue,
 Disproving, if disproof were still a need,
 Platonic versions of reality.*

And insects bid on glass a flat adieu.
